

Spruce Peak Invites Guests to Savor the Spirit of Mexico in the Heart of the Village with Pico Taco

A Lively New Casual Taqueria Fusing Authentic Mexican Flavors with Alpine Charm

STOWE, VT (NOVEMBER 14, 2024) – Spruce Peak is thrilled to announce the opening of Pico Taco, the latest culinary destination bringing a colorful fusion of fresh Mexican flavors and alpine inspiration to Stowe, Vermont. Opening November 22, 2024, Pico Taco promises a vibrant and casual dining experience that's more than just a meal—it's a mountain retreat for the senses.

From the first taste to the last, Pico Taco will transport visitors and locals alike to the lively streets of Mexico, with a twist of Stowe's rustic charm. Designed by the talented team at Rose Bernard, this 1,600-square-foot space brims with warmth and character, featuring high ceilings, patterned wall coverings, and curated décor that invites guests to relax, laugh, and linger. Inside, diners will find a welcoming atmosphere perfect for families, friends, and fellow adventurers ready to recharge after a day on the slopes.

"With Pico Taco, we're excited to bring guests a relaxed yet memorable dining experience that celebrates both local flavor and culinary tradition," shares David Lockard, Managing Director of The Lodge at Spruce Peak. "Pico Taco combines Spruce Peak's commitment to authentic, fresh, and fun dining with the flavors and warmth of Mexico. It's a place where you can kick back, fuel up, and feel the vibrant energy of the mountains."

Nestled in vibrant Spruce Peak Village, just steps from the Ice Rink, Pico Taco's playful and thoughtfully crafted menu includes a delicious selection of bowls, burritos, tacos, and quesadillas—perfect for a quick bite, a leisurely meal, or on-the-go enjoyment. Highlights include hand-pressed corn tortillas filled with Yucatán-Style Roasted Pork, Adobo Squash, and classic Carne Asada, as well as fresh and nourishing Pico Bowls loaded with local ingredients like black beans, rice, and crisp lettuce. On the weekends, morning skiers can kickstart their day with a hearty breakfast burrito packed with eggs, hash browns, chorizo, and salsa roja, while sides like guacamole, house-made queso, and salsa trios keep the good vibes rolling, daily.

Pico Taco isn't just about the food—it's about creating a sense of community and warmth. With seating for 48 indoors and 24 on the patio, this lively taqueria is designed to bring people together, whether for a casual lunch or an evening gathering after a day on the slopes. Open daily from 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on weekdays and starting at 8:00 a.m. on weekends, Pico Taco is ready to welcome both early risers and evening diners alike.

Located at 242 Hourglass Drive in the heart of Spruce Peak Village, Pico Taco is where fresh, local ingredients meet authentic Mexican flavors and alpine charm. Join us for a taste, a laugh, and a moment to unwind amid the spectacular mountain views. For more information, visit www.SprucePeak.com/PicoTaco.

###

About Spruce Peak

Spruce Peak is Vermont's most elevated luxury slopeside community. Located at the base of Stowe's iconic Mount Mansfield, it serves as the center of a uniquely Vermont mountain culture. Celebrating its 21st year, Spruce Peak has become a place where a close-knit group of more than 500 homeowners and members eat, drink, relax, play, and live. Spruce Peak sets the stage for memories; at its heart a charming, geothermal-powered Village Center that offers access to adventurous activities, with an intimate 450-seat performance arts center, an award-winning Bob Cupp–designed golf course and a nearly 10,000-square-foot outdoor ice rink. Central to the Village is The Lodge at Spruce Peak – Stowe's only ski-in ski-out luxury hotel - and a members-only club with a refined and elegant 20,000 square-foot clubhouse. For those also seeking something more indulgent there is a pampering spa with outdoor pools and a fitness center, and locally inspired dining and retail destinations. Spruce Peak is an Audubon-certified sustainable community, inspired by our alpine location to be engaged stewards of 2,000 acres of preserved Vermont land. SprucePeak.com, IG: @sprucepeak, FB: @sprucelife

About The Lodge at Spruce Peak

The Lodge at Spruce Peak is Vermont's only true ski-in/ski-out hotel, offering seamless access to Stowe's world-class outdoor activities year-round, including alpine skiing, mountain biking, and fly fishing. Boasting 312 elegant guestrooms, suites, and private residences, The Lodge caters to a range of tastes and preferences. Its dining venues highlight the farm-to-table culinary richness of the region, with locally sourced ingredients and rustic charm featured at Alpine Hall, Topsy Trout, WhistlePig Pavilion, and Pico Taco. The Spa at Spruce Peak offers an extensive menu of massages, facials, and body therapies alongside hair and nail services. The newly upgraded Fitness Center is outfitted with state-of-the-art TechnoGym equipment, including an Outrace R2-5 training structure, and provides daily fitness and yoga classes year-round. www.sprucepeak.com/stay/the-lodge.

Media Contact:

Greta Vanhersecke

GV Public Relations

Email: Greta@gvpublicrelations.com

Phone: (917) 751-5037